Clendenin Ryan Jr., Millionaire, Kills Himself

Was Grandson of Late Financier Thomas Fortune Ryan

NEW YORK (P) - Clendenin J. Ryan Jr., 52, millionaire grandson of the late financier Thomas Fortune Ryan and an enthusiastic dabbler in politics, shot himself to death early today in the same town house where his father committed suicide in 1939.

Ryan's wife, the former Jane Harder, was in the apartment at the time. She thought the shot was a backfire until informed differently by Ryan's attorney who had been waiting to go to Washington with Ryan.

The attorney, Michael Graney, did not say what their business in Washington was. A family friend said Ryan had been "holed up" in the apartment for over a year, brooding over a civil action

Police said Ryan left two sealed envelopes, one addressed to his wife and the other to a Mrs. Caroline Ryan Faulke believed to be his sister. A third note, unsealed, was impounded by police who refused to divulge its contents im-

Shortly after World War II, Ryan claimed to have set up his own anti-Communist espionage system in the Iron Curtain area. He said one of his agents negotiated with deposed Soviet Secret Police Chief Lavrenti Beria to arrange for Beria to seek asylum in America, but it was later learned that

Can Join BLUE CROSS & BLUE SHIELD Direct...as an Individual

TF a sudden accident or illness puts you in the hospital today ... could you pay all the hospital and doctor bills yourself? Would you have to use up the savings you've worked hard to save . . . or go into debt? So why not do as so many people do . . . let Blue Cross, the hospitals' own plan, and Blue Shield, the doctors' plan . . . help you pay hospital and doctor bills.

Right now . . . between now and Sept. 30th . . . the Chicago Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans offer you a special opportunity to join . . . if you're under 65 and in good health. Protect your family too . . . husband or wife under 65 and unmarried children under 19 . . . before this special Non-Group offer ends.

When you're young and raising a family, you need Blue Cross and Blue Shield to help you pay hospital and doctor bills either for yourself . . . or your children. And as you grow older, it's equally as important to have Blue Cross and Blue Shield protection. Remember... cash goes fast when sickness comes.

GET APPLICATION AT HOSPITAL

MAIL IT BEFORE SEPT. 30th

Clendenin Ryan Jr., Millionaire, Kills Himself

Was Grandson of Late Financier Thomas Fortune Ryan

NEW YORK (P) - Clendenin J. Ryan Jr., 52, millionaire grandson of the late financier Thomas Fortune Ryan and an enthusiastic dabbler in politics, shot himself to death early today in the same town house where his father committed suicide in 1939.

Ryan's wife, the former Jane Harder, was in the apartment at the time. She thought the shot was a backfire until informed differently by Ryan's attorney who had been waiting to go to Washington

The attorney, Michael Graney, did not say what their business in Washington was. A family friend said Ryan had been "holed up" in the apartment for over a year, brooding over a civil action

Police said Ryan left two sealed envelopes, one addressed to his wife and the other to a Mrs. Caroline Ryan Faulke believed to be his sister. A third note, unsealed, was impounded by police who refused to divulge its contents immediately.

Shortly after World War II, Ryan claimed to have set up his own anti-Communist espionage system in the Iron Curtain area. He said one of his agents negotiated with deposed Soviet Secret Police Chief Lavrenti Beria to arrange for Beria to seek asvlum in America. but it was later learned that Beria already had been liquidated at the time of the alleged nego-

Frustrating Political Career

Once a society playboy who hit tabloid front pages with his quickly annualled marriage to a countess, Ryan turned to politics as an aide to Mayor Fiorello Le Guardia

Ryan's frustrating political career hit its high in 1950 when he launched an enthusiastic campaign for mayor of New York City, His unsuccessful campaign against William O'Dwyer was based on charges of corruption in city

Ryan also entered the political scene in New Jersey where he owned a big estate. He was a, delegate from New Jersey to the

The case was to have come up in court in Newark almost any day but Ryan had pleadel he was not

He also was involved in another action over New Jersey farm land. Five children, besides his wife, survive him.

Howard Sullivan Is Arrested By City Police

Makes Confession To Postal Inspector And Police Chief

Howard Sullivan, 34-year-old Harrisburg taxi driver, admitted in a signed confession to a federal postal inspector this morning that ne was the person who had raised two post office money orders in Saline county this week.

Sullivan, who gave his address as Harrisburg Route 2, was arrested late Wednesday by Harrisburg city police at a house on West Raymond avenue. He denied raising the money or ders at first, although positively identified by three persons, but later this morning admitted he had committed the acts and wrote a signed confession before the inspector and Chief of Police Ross

Used Name "Charles Davis"

He admitted he had raised fifty-cent money order obtained at the Raleigh post office Tuesday to $44.50 and bought a $15 watch from Lee Wright, receiving change; and of raising a fifty-cent money order obtained at the Carrier Mills post office to $44.50 and cashing it at the Uptown motel in Harrisburg. In both instances he gave his name as "Charles Davis" of Harrisburg and had them made out to "Bill Morgan." Lane said that Sullivan went to the motel yesterday afternoon and told Mrs. Olen Ingram that he would be working in the area and priced the rooms for a week. He said he would pay $15 in advance and produced the money order.

which was cashed. Sullivan ther said he was hungry, that he would go eat and return, and left in an automobile.

Calufetti to Take Squad of 24 Players

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs open 78 62 .557 7 14 their 1957 football season at Murphysboro Friday night, meeting the Red Devils from Jackson county in a non-conference contest. For many years these two teams have opened the season against each other and the results are eyed by fans all over southern Illinois. Game time is eight o'clock.

Coach Lawrence Calufetti will Beers. take a squad of 24 varsity players to Murphysboro. He said a few more boys had come out late but that they had not engaged in the required number of scrimmages required by the Illinois High School association to play in this week's contest. Calufetti will start a team of vetterans. Starting lineup will be composed of Allen Buchanan at center, Gary Aldridge and Bill Endsley at guards, Jack Simpson and Ron Maynard at tackles, Bill Yates and Bud Logan or Don Pickford at ends, Ray Hassett at quarerback, Don Biggs and Mickey Stone at halfbacks and Eddie Price at fullback.

Others to Make Trip

These 12 boys comprise the 12 lettermen on the Bull Dog varsity which won but one game last year. Quarterback Hassett was a first string tackle last season. All are seniors except Ron Maynard and Don Pickford, who are juniors.

Other boys who will make the trip are Darrell Biggs, center; Gary Leverett, Don Winters and Ben Barnhill, guards; Harold Beal and A. J. Bryant, tackles; Joe Wathen a 4-1 victory over the Red Sox in and Carl Fleming, ends; David Dalton and Darrell Duke, halfbacks; Wendell Fisher, fullback; and Joe Ford, quarterback. ington, 3-0, and 12-2, while Kansas Calufetti said he had a pretty good nucleus, especially in the line, but that his squad definitely was acking in depth. "Quite a number of boys will have Dodgers limited the Cubs to six to learn two positions," he commented. Calufetti, who is being assisted on the varsity by newcomer Chester Caddas, said that Bud Logan would do the punting, that kickoff and tries after touchdowns would be attempted by Maynard.

Red Devils Lack Depth Word from Murphysboro reveals that the Red Devils, too, are lacking in depth. Maglie checked Cleveland on Coach Bob Colborn said: three hits in posting his first AL
